Town Officers To Be Named

Time for election of Town of Appomattox Mayor and Council members is rapidly approaching. Election date is June 13. There are two candidates for Mayor, incumbent councilman, S. R. Lawson is a candidate, in a contest with veteran former councilman Grover E. Smith. Incumbent Mayor C. T. Moses, Jr., is not a candidate. For the Town Council, the other five incumbent members are candidates. They are: Mrs. Calvin Robinson, president of the Council and Vice- Mayor; J. T. Almond; Ivey Holland, Randolph Gilbert, and Henry B. Pack. Non-incumbent candidates are: E. LeRoy Smith, retired postmaster; John Garrett and former Councilman C. Lewis McDearmon.

It is understood that there has been much activity in processing applications for mail ballots. It is estimated that there may be close to 90 mail ballots.

PROGRAM OFFERED FOR TWELVE MONTH PASTURE

When Horace A. Woodliff, poultryman and livestock producer, Gloucester, Virginia, was asked how many months in the year his fescue pasture is grazed, he said, "Twelve" according to A. G. Birdsall, county agent in Gloucester.

To get his year-round pasture, Woodliff seeded ten acres of rolling sandy and with 10 pounds of Kentucky 31 Fescue and 2 pounds of Ladino clover per acre in August, 1956. Before seeding, he supplied 1¼ tons of lime and 1,000 pounds of 2-12-12 fertilizer per acre. Another 1¼ tons of lime per acre were applied in 1958.

Beginning in 1958, an annual application of 144 pounds of nitrogen, 100 pounds phosphate, and 40 pounds of potash per acre has been spread on the pasture in poultry manure. Three tons of hay per acre were cut that year and in 1959.

In April, 1960, eight steers averaging 600 pounds and grading good were turned on the fescue. The steers were on pasture continuously until October when they were sold in the feeder sale in in Richmond. Four steers graded fancy, three choice, and one good. The gain while on pasture was 1.96 pounds per day. The steers were fed 2½ months before selling 5 pounds each per day of a 12 percent protein feed, costing 3 cents per pound.

Following the steers, 2 sows and 7 gilts were turned on the fescue pasture and started all through the winter even when the fescue was covered with snow. Horace says, The fescue was succulent through the entire winter. The stand and turf has improved each year. I could carry 10 head of steers and 20 sows 12 months of the year on this pasture.

Local Boys At Camp

Area boys who will attend the annual forest industry sponsored Forestry Camp at Holliday Lake in Appomattox County, have been named by the Virginia Division of Forestry and Virginia's pulpwood using industry.

The camp, attended annually by more than one hundred Virginia boys who have won scholarships through their interest and participation n forest conservation projects, will be held from June 4th through June 30.

Those awarded scholarships will study forest management, tree planting, forest research projects, and forest fire prevention, taught by foresters from industry and the Division of Forestry. Camp life will include recreational and night programs.

Youths attending from this area are: Glen O'Brien, and Lonnie Reynolds, Jr., Appomattox High School, Rt. 3, Appomattox, Va.

TO GET DEGREE

... Mrs. Raymond Dickerson

Mrs. Raymond C. Dickerson, the former Nancy Martin, of Appomattox, is one of the 172 seniors who will receive degrees from Longwood College, Farmville, June 4, at the 77th annual graduation exercises.

The commencement address will be given by Leonard G. Muse, president of the State Board of Education.

Mrs. Dickerson, an elementary education major, will receive a B. S. degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie S. Martin.

POPPY DAY RESULTS

According to Mrs. John S. Moore, Poppy chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, Poppy Day was the most successful day in Appomattox this year. Mrs. Moore said, "On behalf of the American Legion Auxiliary, I wish to express thanks to all the volunteers who helped in the distribution of poppies, and to the warm response that we had to the poppy program.

Monogram Club Officers

The Monogram Club of Appomattox High School held its last meeting for the 1960-61 school year, with the election of new officers: President, Sanda Trent
Vice-president, Doris Mayberry
Secretary, Carolyn Childers
Treasurer, Barry Beale
The Monogram Club has successfully carried out the project for the year The Hop in the gymnasium, the crowning of Miss Doris Mayberry as Miss A. H. S., awarding the senior club members their sweaters in recognition of athletic achievement.
The club will share in a day of fun and pleasure at Holliday Lake June 9.

Voter Pattern Varies In Va.

Voter registration in Virginia's famed Southside is lagging. This historic area, noted for its devotion to the traditional Virginia "Way of Life" is down on the list of registered and qualified voters in the Old Dominion.

It is estimated that in the entire state, there are approximately 1,045,000 eligible to vote this year. Percentage-wise, that would come out at slightly above 100,000 for each of the ten Congressional districts.

However, the Fourth District, of which Appomattox is a part, represented by Congressman Watkins M. Abbitt, and the Fifth District, represented by former Governor William M. Tuck, are at the bottom of the totem poll, with only 77,900 voters eligible each. The booming district in the state is the Tenth, already with 117,700 eligible voters, and growing daily.

A redistricting of the state will be mandatory as a result of the 1960 census. Population switches could very likely cause the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth Districts to have more counties and or cities added, so as to equalize representation with the expanding Second, Third, Sixth and Tenth Districts. The First and Eighth seem about in line on a status quo basis.

SENIOR 4-H CLUB

The Senior 4-H Club of Appomattox High School held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday. The meeting was called to order by Herbie Pulliam, president. Mr. Dan Moody suggested a new program to the group. He also asked for suggestions for the club project for the coming year. Suggestions were: Home ground decorating, judging of leadership, interior decorating, intermology, lawn and country, and forestry. Interior decorating was chosen as the club project.
The following were appointed to work on this project: Tom Evans, Tommy Moore, Joe Terry, Bennie Davis, Vicki Smith, Harrieete Harvey, Mary Yancey Spencer, Lina Trent.

Most people are ready to spend somebody else's money.

Horse Show Set This Saturday

Saturday, June 3 is the date for the Third Annual Appomattox Horse Show to be staged at the Appomattox Ball Park. Again this popular sports event is being sponsored by the Appomattox Lions Club and the Jaycees.

Promptly at 1:00 P. M., the first show will commence, and the second performance will start at 7:30 P. M.

Prizes valued at approximately $1,000.00 will be awarded the successful contestants. Following the evening show, the prizes will be awarded. Ticket holders do not have to be present to win. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free if accompanied by an adult.

Chairman Bob Leffers and his efficient executive committee have gone all-out to make the 1961 show excell the two previous shows in every detail.

"Willie Buck" Morris and "Slow" Lawson, co-chairmen of the Food Committee, are making plans to serve plate lunches, sandwiches, drinks and desserts.

The W. M. Abbitt Trophy, which was won by T. M. Trent last year and is required to be won three consecutive times for retention, will be presented by the donor.

The uniformed Appomattox High School band, under the direction of Mrs. Floyd E. Bingham, will provide music.

Hubert Wright, of Roanoke will be Master of Ceremonies, and A. J. Lucas, of Lynchburg, will serve as ringmaster. The judges will be Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Evans, of Marietta, Georgia, who have served in that capacity for the two previous shows.

It is reported that a number of valuable show horses have been entered and the total entries will exceed one hundred.

Tickets may be obtained now from any member of the sponsoring clubs.
